

The 66th Rallye Sanremo ready on the launch pad

In the long weekend that runs from Wednesday 10th to Saturday 13th April, the motor sport event of the Western Liguria returns with its four scheduled races: modern rally, valid for CIR, ERT and for the R-GT Cup; the historic race, valid for CIRAS and TERH; the Regularity Flower Cup, valid for the Italian specialty championship and the Leggenda. As if that weren't enough to thrill enthusiasts, a Lancia Stratos meeting is scheduled.

SANREMO (IM), 21 gennaio – The organizational phase of the 66th edition of the Rallye Sanremo proceeds with the wind at its back, which from Wednesday 10th to Saturday 13th April will bring in the City of Flowers the crews participating in the four races, that will make Western Liguria the center of Italian competitive motorsport.

The highlight of the event will be the 66th Rallye Sanremo which will be valid as the second round of the Italian Rally Championship, as well as having international value as the opening race of the European Rally Trophy and third round of the FIA GT Cup, a series that will bring on the tarmac of the Ligurian hinterland the most beautiful rally Gran Turismo. The competition structure is classic with reconnaissance, sporting checks, scrutineering and shakedown on Wednesday and Thursday. In the afternoon of Friday 12th April the start of the rally and the super special stage in Porto Sole, and night stages. Saturday second leg with the end of the race in the evening. Great interest also for the 34th Historic Sanremo Rally, valid for the Italian Historic Car Rally Championship and as the second round of the European Rally Historic Tour, which will be disputed together with the modern rally.

To be followed with interest also the 33rd edition of the Media Regularity Cup of Flowers, valid also for the Italian Championship that will develop on the same roads of the rallies crossing its times both with the modern national race, and with the historic one. And finally there is the opportunity for competitors who want to concentrate their efforts in just one day to run across the mythical roads of the "Sanremo" to compete in the 11th edition of the "Sanremo Leggenda" valid for the Italian Cup of the Zone that will be developed for full on Saturday 13 April. But the surprises are not over since on the occasion of the race there is a meeting of the Lancia Stratos, the car probably most loved by rally enthusiasts, with the Turin Sedan, unbeatable in the seventies, who will return to concentrate in the city of Sanremo.
